

Yummy Bakes NI

Frozen

Background

After nearly 30 years in Media and Healthcare Anna Taggart identified a gap in the market for quality traditional home baking and decided it was time to share her recipes and to introduce traditional Irish home baking to the frozen, baked goods sector.

Yummy Bakes, owned and managed by Anna, started trading in April 2012 and within its first weeks won Best Food Product - North & South of Ireland for its Shortbread Biscuits at the IFEX Awards.

The Yummy Bake mission is to fuse together the uncompromised values of traditional home baking with the modern convenience of a ready to bake product. Using traditional baking methods and only the freshest of ingredients, once prepared all products are instantly frozen, packed and distributed to the customer so that they can be baked-off freshly every day. It really is "home baking made easy".
