

Mash Direct

Chilled Fresh

Background

Mash Direct Ltd is a unique award-winning and family-owned Farming Enterprise formed in 2004 and located close to the shores of Strangford Lough in County Down, Northern Ireland. It comprises of a traditional farm and a state-of-the-art food production facility.

After careful analysis of current market trends, changes in eating habits and lifestyle patterns, Company owners, Martin and Tracy Hamilton decided to diversify within their wholesale vegetable farming business by adding value to their produce.

Mash Direct is the now the leading UK brand, offering an innovative range of high quality, convenient mashed root vegetable, potato, cabbage and other quality vegetable products with the taste and texture of good homemade food.

The vegetables are grown, steam-cooked and packaged on the farm and are free from artificial additives, preservatives and colourings. They offer consumers a range of totally natural and nourishing food products that are low in salt, 100% gluten free and provide a good source of dietary fibre. Mash Direct products are supplied both chilled and frozen and are suitable for microwave or oven heating.
