

The Chocolate Manor

Ambient

Background

Based in a purpose built workshop in Coleraine, The Chocolate Manor was established in 2012 with the aim of creating unique extra special chocolate delights.

With a passion for chocolate and delivering excellent customer service, they aim to impress and delight with unique designs and products using the finest Belgian Chocolate, specialising in printing bespoke designs and images directly onto handcrafted chocolate creations.

A new range of printed bars for retail were launched in 2015. The 50g bars can be adapted to showcase your brand or message for events, promotional gifts or for sale. The bars are gluten free.

Working closely with chefs and managers in hospitality, they offer a range of discs for events, dessert decoration, afternoon tea and for event favours, as well as bespoke showpieces for high end occasions. Bespoke commissions are welcomed.

The Chocolate Manor offers a special range of personalised products for wedding favours and gifts. Chocolate making workshops are available with for private groups, for staff development, parties or community groups.
