

Dale Farm

Chilled Frozen

Background

Dale Farm is a Northern Ireland headquartered dairy cooperative, owned by approximately 1,300 farmer members. Known for its award-winning range of milk, cheese, butter, ice creams and yogurts, the cooperative's brands include Dale Farm, Dromona, Spelga, Mullin's, Rowan Glen (Scotland) and Loseley (Great Britain).

Employing approximately 1,200 people, Dale Farm manufactures and supplies its dairy products to the retail, foodservice and ingredient sectors throughout the UK, as well as exporting into over 40 markets worldwide.

A full service cooperative, Dale Farm collects the first-class milk from farms that is then used to produce its dairy products and provides a range of support services to its farmer members.

Receiving regular industry awards and constantly bringing innovation to the dairy sector through new product development, Dale Farm has been recognised as one of Northern Ireland's iconic food brands for generations.
