

Glenarm Organic Salmon Ltd

Chilled Fresh

Background

Established in 2008, Glenarm Organic Salmon remains to this day the only Atlantic salmon farmer in the Irish Sea and produces some of the worlds finest Organic Salmon.

Based in the historic village of Glenarm, County Antrim, our company produces up to up to 700 tonnes of beautiful organic salmon each year which are distributed weekly across 15 countries from Singapore in the East to San Francisco in the West to discerning customers seeking premium quality seafood from responsible and sustainable aquaculture.

Our on-growing farms are located in Glenarm Bay and Red Bay off the Antrim coast, separated by 11 miles of fast flowing coastal seawater. Each farm is stocked with a different generation of organically reared smolts all sourced from the island of Ireland giving us the ability to supply our customers with fresh premium organic salmon all year round.
