

Hollah Preserving Ltd

Ambient Fresh

Background

Trudy Hodkinson and Paula Latuske have combined their talents and surnames to create Hollah Preserving - a hip and quirky brand of relishes and sauces with a retro vibe.

Hollah was born to preserve Paula and Trudy's sanity, who had stepped off the corporate ladder to raise their young children. Hollah's ethos is "Preserving Food, Friendships and Sanity!"

Both independently minded the Hollah girls dare to add ingredients and their signature chilli kick to produce flavours away from the mainstream. Hollah has given the traditional condiment a hipster spin, this relish will rock you!

Now, having outgrown our home kitchens Hollah is delighted to have expanded and entrusted our production to a local and experienced manufacturer. This has enabled us to spread the Hollah love further afield.
