Ambient

Background

PEPPUP, the Northern Irish artisan business specialising in unique roasted pepper and tomato table sauces was set up by Turin-born Luca Montorio in Newtownards in 2014.

PEPPUP's range of authentic and versatile products includes a classic sauce flavour and a mild chilli version. Both are gluten-free and available in 275g bottles with a recommended retail price of £2.99.

PEPPUP table sauces do not compromise on taste. Apart from roasted peppers and tomatoes, the only other ingredients are sugar, salt and vinegar. They can be used to add distinctively rich flavours to any dish, or enjoyed on their own.
