Ambient

Background

Frylite has grown to become Ireland's leading supplier and collector of vegetable oils and fats.

Operating on a nationwide basis, Frylite services the needs of thousands of customers on a daily basis from their 6 bases which are located throughout the island of Ireland in Strabane, Coleraine, Dublin, Slane, Galway and Cork.

Frylite Ltd provides its customers with a "complete service package" which includes the following key benefits:

A regular, reliable and friendly service: A regular and hassle free supply and waste oil and fats collection service.

Guaranteed product quality: Frylite's oils are sourced directly from refineries in Europe where its origin and quality can be guaranteed.

Broad range of oils to choose from: Soya bean, rapeseed & sunflower oil plus a top quality Italian pomace olive oil and high quality beef dripping products together with a range of fats and sauces products bought to order.

Money saving: Frylite's bucket system eliminates any packaging and wastage costs, as all used oil is collected in the plastic buckets in which it was supplied.
