

Morrow Foods

Chilled

Background

Morrow Foods specializes in the production of gastronomic quality pate for retail, delicatessens and foodservice. Established in 1996 and located in a state-of-the-art manufacturing plant in Cookstown, County Tyrone, Morrow Foods supplies pate to ROI, GB and European markets. Current customers in the UK and Ireland include: Sainsbury's, Tesco, Asda, Superquinn, (NI, ROI & UK) and selected top hotels and restaurants and high quality delicatessens.

Domestic Market, UK and ROI: Morrow pate has built a reputation as a supplier of the lowest fat, non vegetarian. Pates available on the UK and Irish markets - 100% chicken liver pate with no added pork liver fats or preservatives. Pates are packed in 113g units for retail & kilo packaging for food service and delicatessen counters. Shelf life is 21 days. Flavours include: Original, Garlic, Pepper, Brandy, Canard a L'Orange. Morrow Foods also produce special, (seasonal) pates for clients such as: Game, Turkey & Cranberry, and Bacon & Red Wine.

Export Markets: Morrow Foods has recently developed a long life pate containing chicken liver, pork liver, pork fat, herbs and spices and is available as smooth, medium and coarse. Shelf life is 100 days guaranteed.

Product Range

Selection of chicken liver pates
Special (seasonal) pate's

Long life pates
Soups
Stews

Customers

Morrow Foods supplies pate to ROI, GB and European markets. Current customers in the UK and Ireland include: Sainsbury's, Tesco, Asda, Superquinn, Londis, Spar (NI, ROI & UK) and selected top hotels and restaurants and high quality delicatessens.

Awards held

- The Irish Quality Food & Drink Awards 2016: Commended in the Soups category for our Vegetable Soup with a Spud

Image Gallery

