

Skea Egg Farms

Ambient Fresh

Background

Skea Egg Farms Ltd is a producer and packer of eggs. It has always been a family run business. The current Managing Director, Matthew Hayes started the business in the early 1970's. Skea Egg Farms Ltd initially supplied the wholesale market and was supplied by family run farms.

Skea Egg Farms Ltd continues to implement new policies and standards to adhere to the latest legislation requirements for the food industry. Their wide customer base also requires adherence to changing specifications.

Their commitment remains steadfast to provide the highest possible quality product, marketed innovatively. This can be seen by the increase in depth and extent of comprehensive quality systems now in place.

In addition to Skea Eggs Own Brand the company supplies major retailer's throughout Northern Ireland and Great Britain with their own brand.
