

Killowen Distillery

Background

Killowen Distillery is seated in the heart of the Mourne Mountains in County Down where horizons are framed by sweeping hills that slope gently into the sea. It is a place where old traditions and the finest natural resources have been blended to produce world class craft spirits.

Killowen Distillery was founded on principles of quality, integrity and transparency as such they have developed a cult following and have seen huge demand for their bottlings, such as their single cask expressions of poitín and especially their own distilled and very rare whiskey known as Barántúil.

Product Range

Killowen Gin: Focusing on centuries of Gin making in Ireland, we at Killowen Distillery place seasonal botanicals to the fore, many of which are handpicked from the immediate locality. The result is an unusual gin celebrating its maritime and highland environment within the Mourne Mountains. Latest releases include 'Rhubarb Heather Hibiscus and Blackberry, Rosemary & Orange Gins.

Killowen Poitín: Our geographically protected native spirit has enjoyed a recent revival in recent years. At Killowen we carefully select a unique ratio of wheat, barley and oats to create a mash bill fitting of the word Poitín. Killowen Poitín is a substance of luxury created with skill and care. Latest release includes 'Gloria', a cask aged, poitín based coffee liqueur.

Killowen Whiskey: The future jewel in the crown of Killowen Distillery, our whiskey is primarily inspired by the 'Pure Pot Still Irish Whiskey' tradition. Here at Killowen we hold our mash bills in highest regard. Killowen's whiskey progress is top secret. These details are known only to a select few who are lucky enough to own a founder's cask. There will be a chance for fifteen applicants to invest in a cask of Killowen in the coming eighteen months.
